

ChORUS Older Driver Resources

- My State Information provides a quick reference to additional information resources in your state/community.
- How to Understand and Influence Older Drivers” can be accessed at: <https://icsw.nhtsa.gov/people/injury/olddrive/UnderstandOlderDrivers/>
- Caring.com. provides a wide range of information on senior driving including “How to Have ‘The Talk’ About Giving Up the Keys,” and “Transportation Options for Seniors Who No Longer Drive” at <https://www.caring.com/caregivers/senior-driving/>.
- Hartford Insurance’s “We Need to Talk” can be downloaded at: <https://www.caring.com/caregivers/senior-driving/#how-to-have-%E2%80%9Cthe-talk%E2%80%9D-about-giving-up-the-keys>. This guidebook gives families easy-to-use, practical information to help them plan and initiate productive and caring conversations with older adults about driving safety.
- Alzheimer’s Association’s planning guide with suggestions for advising older adults with dementia about driving is available for downloading at: <https://www.alz.org/help-support/caregiving/safety/dementia-driving>
- Eldercare at: <https://eldercare.acl.gov/> provides information on transportation resources in a specific community.
- AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety at: <http://www.seniordriver.org> offers useful tips tools for older drivers and their families.
- National Center on Senior Transportation (NCST) at: <https://www.caregiver.org/national-center-senior-transportation> lists includes resources on transportation options for older adults and how to address the need for driver retirement.
- National High Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) resource for older drivers and their families can be accessed at: <https://www.trafficsafetymarketing.gov/get-materials/older-drivers>.